NOTICE TO CLAIMANT: Section 35-4-405(8) of the Utah Employment Security Act provides that unemployment insurance benefits based upon work performed for educational institutions cannot be paid between two academic years or terms if the person worked during the first year or term and has a "reasonable assurance" of returning to this type of work in the following year or term. The information you and your employer provide will be used to determine your eligibility for benefits.

Have you been notified or do you expect to return to work for an educational institution during the next academic year or term? • Yes • No

If no, why will you not be returning to this work in the next academic year or term?

I certify the above information is true and correct. I have made these statements to claim unemployment benefits knowing the law provides penalties for making false statements or withholding material facts.
